

me during this process. It is not easy to carry a technical bill for the Department of Revenue, particularly one that is 104 pages long, and I am very glad that we have members here who are on their toes and interested to know what kind of changes the Department of Revenue is making to our tax law. Senator Rupp asked me a little earlier if I might be putting in quietly some sales tax on services. I looked at my staff counsel and I said is there any sales tax on services in this bill and she said no. So I assume there is absolutely no sales tax on services in this bill. This bill does represent technical changes. We have discussed a good number of those. Save your list, if between now and Select File you have some other areas you would like me to go into, I will be glad to do it. That is what it is all about. I appreciate your support for this bill. I encourage its advancement.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you, Senator Johnson. You have heard the closing and the question is, shall LB 523 as amended be advanced to E & R Review? All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. We are voting on the advancement of the bill. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Please record.
